Glorious Opportunity For Bargain Seekers.

Our fall purchases are the heaviest in years. The trade we Jeweler and Optician. have enjoyed this spring, coupled with the general conditions in onr midst, we believe warrant the venture of large purchases.

We now want room. Our fall FAIR I goods are already coming in. To secure space we must rid ourselves of surplus stock. We have about 125 to 150

He ant calmly reading a mewapaper until about the middle of the bridge was reached when he jumped off the curt. Throwing off his coat, Hauser chimbed upon the outer railing to leap. The bridge policeman, passengers on the cars and the care men med a rush for the man. He regarded their approach coolly, hesitated a moment and then leaned clear of the structure. He struck the water just astern of a ferry boat. A passenger sprang overb and an sexized liauser when he reappeared and sexized liauser when he reappeared the structure in the structure of the

"Say, papa, I would like to see some-body jump off."
"Well, I am afraid you won't get your wish to-day," replied her father. "Won't she?" came a voice in reply.
"I'll jump for the little girl."

"I'll jump for the little girl."
When asked why he made the juhe said it was because he was a druen fool. He insisted that he had no trouble of any sort either in fan or financially. Finally he jokin remarked, "That's what Coney Isla booze does for a fellow."
